Hope International University is now accepting applications for a full-time Intercultural Studies position at the level of Professor, Associate Professor, or Assistant Professor. Primary responsibilities will be teaching at the graduate and undergraduate levels in the classroom and online environments.

Requirements:

Candidates must have an affiliation with the Restoration Movement Christian Churches/Church of Christ and an earned PhD with an emphasis in Intercultural Studies field from an accredited school; ABD candidates will be considered. The ideal candidate will have at least three years of teaching experience at the college level. Candidates must fully support the Mission, Vision, and Values of Hope International University (details at <http://www.hiu.edu/about/mission/>).

Please submit the following to Wende Holtzen, Human Resources Director, Hope International University, at careers@hiu.edu:

- Curriculum Vitae
- A letter of intent that includes (1) how your background fulfills the requirements of the position, (2) how you have integrated a Biblical worldview into instructional content and (3) a description of your personal faith journey.
- The names of three references, with phone numbers, addresses, email addresses, and nature of your relationship.
